Communications Policy

EP&T Global Limited ACN 645 144 314 (EP&T)

1. Background

1.1 Overview

- (a) EP&T is committed to effective communication with its customers, shareholders, market participants, employees, suppliers, financiers, creditors, other stakeholders and the wider community. EP&T will ensure that all stakeholders, market participants and the wider community are informed of its activities and performance.
- (b) EP&T will endeavour to make publicly available all information to ensure that trading in its shares takes place in an efficient, competitive and informed market.

1.2 Purpose

- (a) This Communications Policy contains EP&T's approach and commitment to communication. The Policy is designed to ensure that EP&T:
 - (i) provides timely and accurate information equally to all shareholders and market participants regarding EP&T including its financial situation, performance, ownership, strategies, activities and governance; and
 - (ii) adopts channels for disseminating information that are fair, timely and cost efficient.
 - (b) In addition to those policies and processes contained in the Continuous Disclosure Policy, EP&T has implemented a number of processes to ensure achievement of these goals.

2. Confidentiality

- (a) Information that EP&T considers private and that is not generally available outside EP&T (Confidential Information) and information that EP&T owns, develops, pays to have developed or to which it has an exclusive right (Proprietary Information) must be treated by EP&T and all employees as follows:
 - (i) EP&T and all employees must ensure that they do not disclose any Confidential Information or Proprietary Information to any third party or other employee who does not have a valid business reason for receiving that information;
 - (ii) if Confidential Information or Proprietary Information is required to be provided to third parties or other employees for valid business purposes, EP&T and its employees must:
 - (A) take adequate precautions to ensure that information is only used for those purposes for which it is provided and is not misused or disseminated to EP&T's detriment; and
 - (B) ensure that the information is returned or destroyed when the purpose is complete.
- (b) Such precautions include obtaining a confidentiality agreement or other undertaking. Advice about these measures can be obtained from the Company Secretary.

- (c) Any information concerning EP&T which is not generally available and which may have a material effect on the price or value of EP&T securities may need to be disclosed in order for EP&T to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations referred to in its Continuous Disclosure Policy and in section 3 of this Communications Policy.

3. Communications with shareholders, employees and the market

3.1 Continuous and periodic disclosure

- (a) Shares in EP&T Global Limited are listed on the ASX. Therefore, EP&T is subject to continuous disclosure requirements under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the ASX Listing Rules, in addition to periodic and specific disclosure requirements.
- (b) A fundamental component of EP&T's Communication Policy is its continuous disclosure program. To ensure EP&T complies with its continuous disclosure obligations, the Board has adopted a Continuous Disclosure Policy.
- (c) In addition to its continuous disclosure obligations, EP&T will make other periodic disclosures as required by law, and also in relation to those matters set out in the schedule to this policy, as contemplated by the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

3.2 Communications with the ASX

- (a) All communication with the ASX will be in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules. The Company Secretary is responsible for communications with the ASX.
- (b) Information communicated to the ASX will also be placed on EP&T's website.
- (c) For further information, refer to EP&T's Continuous Disclosure Policy.

3.3 EP&T Meetings

- (a) The meetings of shareholders of EP&T represent an excellent opportunity for EP&T to provide information to its shareholders. EP&T encourages attendance at, and participation in, general meetings.
- (b) EP&T typically holds its annual general meeting in November in Sydney.
- (c) A notice of a meeting will be sent to shareholders prior to meetings, including details of the time and place of the meeting, the resolutions to be considered and proxy voting procedures.
- (d) EP&T recognises that some shareholders will not be able to attend its meetings of shareholders. To allow for the participation of any such shareholders, EP&T encourages shareholders to forward their questions to the Company Secretary prior to the meeting. Where appropriate, these questions will be read out and answered at the meeting, or, if this is not practicable, the question and answer will be recorded in the transcript of the meeting.
- (e) EP&T will regularly review its policies and procedures that it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation in shareholder meetings including in relation to:
 - (i) participation in meetings involving electronic communications; and
 - (ii) providing direct voting facilities to allow shareholders to vote ahead of the meeting without having to attend or appoint a proxy.

3.4 Information on the website

EP&T's website is one of the cornerstones of EP&T's Communication Policy with shareholders and the market. All information released to the ASX will be posted on EP&T's website as soon as practicable after the ASX has confirmed that it has received the information (see section 4.3 below).

3.5 Briefings

EP&T recognises the importance of the relationship between EP&T and its institutional investors, brokers and analysts. EP&T may from time to time conduct briefings to these groups. In these cases, the following protocols will apply:

- (a) material information which is required to be disclosed under the Continuous Disclosure Policy will not be disclosed at these briefings unless it has been previously, or is simultaneously, released to the market;
- (b) if material information which has not been disclosed is inadvertently released, EP&T will immediately release it to the market via the ASX and place it on EP&T's website;
- (c) questions at briefings that deal with material information that has not previously been disclosed will not be answered; and
- (d) EP&T will place a copy of the presentation material on EP&T's website.

3.6 Communication with employees

EP&T recognises that its employees are central to EP&T's success. In order to enable staff to fulfil their role to the high standards required and to promote employee satisfaction, EP&T aims to ensure effective communication with employees. Effective communication with employees starts with their direct manager and with accessibility to senior management.

3.7 Employee briefings

EP&T will from time to time conduct employee briefings so that all staff are aware of activities within EP&T. These briefings may be conducted by the Managing Director and CEO or an appropriate manager.

3.8 Electronic communication

- (a) EP&T recognises that it is often efficient to communicate electronically and accordingly:
 - (i) shareholders will be given the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, EP&T and its registry electronically; and
 - (ii) EP&T's email system allows staff and stakeholders to communicate simply and easily with management and staff of EP&T.
- (b) Employees and other stakeholders have access to EP&T's email system and are encouraged to use it to improve the flow of information and communication generally.
- (c) EP&T will use email to ensure a continued flow of information and to communicate effectively with staff. Staff should feel free to communicate with any member of management by email.

3.9 Website

- (a) EP&T's website is an important communication tool for EP&T's employees and external stakeholders, such as customers, suppliers and financiers.

- (b) EP&T's website contains a range of information of relevance to stakeholders including relevant corporate governance policies and codes, media and market announcements and presentations to shareholders and institutional investors (see section 4.3 below). Stakeholders are encouraged to view the website on a regular basis so that they can keep up to date with information concerning EP&T.

4. Other communications

4.1 Communications with the media

All inquiries from the media must be referred to the CEO, Only the CEO/Managing Director and the Chairman or any persons authorised by the Chairman are permitted to give an interview or make a presentation to the media.

4.2 Communications with other stakeholders

EP&T is committed to ensuring that all stakeholders regularly receive information about EP&T and its activities. While individual briefings may be held with key stakeholders, such as financiers, the principal means of ensuring that stakeholders have access to information will be through EP&T's website.

4.3 Website

- (a) EP&T's website is the primary means to provide all information to all stakeholders. It has been designed to enable information to be accessed in a clear and readily accessible manner.
- (b) The following information will be available on EP&T's website:
- (i) all announcements and releases to the ASX;
 - (ii) copies of presentations to shareholders, institutional investors, brokers and analysts where possible;
 - (iii) any media or other releases;
 - (iv) all notices of meetings and explanatory material;
 - (v) a copy of EP&T's most recent annual report as well as previous annual and half yearly reports;
 - (vi) all of EP&T's codes, policies and charters; and
 - (vii) any other relevant information concerning non-confidential activities of EP&T including business developments.

5. Other matters

5.1 Questions

If you have any questions arising from EP&T's Communications Policy, please contact the Company Secretary.

5.2 Amendment of policy

This Policy can only be amended with the approval of the Board.

5.3 Adoption of Policy and Board review

- (a) This Policy was adopted by the Board on 18 March 2021, and takes effect from that date and replaces any previous policy in this regard.
- (b) The Board will review this Policy periodically. The Company Secretary will communicate any amendments to employees as appropriate.
